SCARSDALE HIGH SCHOOL

SCARSDALE, NEW YORK

Antene Labow

— 25th ANNIVERSARY YEAR —

In a spirit of admiration and gratitude we dedicate Bandersnatch 1957 to you, whose combination of deep insight and sincere guidance has introduced us to ourselves and has inspired us to transcend superficialities by re-evaluating our relationship to the world. Your fine intellect has shown us the power of a thinking personality, has challenged us to establish our convictions and live by them proudly, and has encouraged us to temper our ambitions with reason. You have given of yourself to give us self-respect . . . We will not forget you, MR. PAINTER.

FOREWORD. . .

The class of 1957 commemorates its senior year and the twenty-fifth anniversary of "Bandersnatch" with this silver anniversary yearbook. The shelf of Bandys, from the first few paper-bound issues to the latest editions, reflects our growing school and community—our changing tastes and traditions. In the following pages we shall underline not only the highlights of our senior year, but also those of the past quarter of a century.

Looking back, we remember the many special occasions that were landmarks of our high school years—the excitement of entering junior high, the elections of our classmates for G.O., our first experience with Regents exams, our preparations for the junior tea dance. All of these led to the realization that senior year was the reward for the five preceding ones. With the sophistication of being not quite sophisticated, we still relish these last few weeks before graduation.

Our new seal symbolizes the scope of our high school program—its learnings, activities and sports. As the last class to graduate from Scarsdale as a six-year high school, we present this '57 Bandersnatch with its emblem, as a final tribute to our school as a whole: the administration, the faculty and the students.

Our growing school. . .

... and community

Dear Arlene,

CONTENTS

you probably didn't want me to write on this page but as you know me by heart — that's just too bad. This yearbook is for past memories so here goes. I suppose the beginning event of all starts with your sweet sixteen. That was some party — we really had a fabulous time. Of course we can't forget that "Fraternity" we wanted to start — it was nice dreaming about it. Remember when we both liked Eddie — who could forget. Besides your party there was the weekly club meetings in which we always made up excuses so we could make rides off Paul. We sure did back it up those nights — we're just 2 big bladders.

Faculty

Next event that came was inevitable — the meeting "The Weeb". I don't think I could ever forget those double dates we had — you with Stan & I with it. We couldn't be like normal people and do normal things — no — we had to see french movies (a sexy ones) both times. Actually, we can't just skip away from those two — they've haunted our lives this whole year. No matter how we tried to forget talking about them — they always slipped out as curse words — "But on lies lies lies" — famous hot words. Let us skip quite away to more normal things now. One of the highlights (3) of the year was that Shappa-ou frat party which was one of the biggest flops of the year. They're BRONX Boys. Can you next recall that delicious banquet we went to — I have the after effects to prove it — I do so like your raincoat [and I wasn't drunk]. I'm sorry you couldn't go to my camp — it would have been so much fun (I swear). Please go to Enrique's, then we can really make plans on how to sneak you into camp. One lasting event I forgot to mention was an election day (of course it had to do with Ronnie) — remember you calling for me at 7:00 in the morning — I wouldn't have minded so much that you kept on honking the horn —

Activities

but did you have to do it under my window (the past is gone) I know I probably have forgotten quite a few major events in our lives but everyone makes mistakes — [Do I owe you any lead pennies lately?]. We didn't go to any rock n' roll shows this year — you never did see Dave again. We can't forget those "collegiate" eastchester boys — now can we. My remaining hot words comes to about this "Don't worry about college —

M.Y.U. (Downtown) will be glad to have us then we can go to chesses with Ronnie (Thrilling — eh). Have a wonderful summer — I'll write & I know you will. See you next year as a "great" senior

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated—Mrs. Augusta Jones, Mr. Helge Johnson, Chairman; Mr. Alfred H. Phillips, Mrs. Aimee Hirshberg. Second Row—Mr. Ralph H. Dumas, Assistant Superintendent of Schools; Mr. John Edmondson, Mr. Rudolf P. Berle, Mr. Frank M. Headley, Mr. Archibald B. Shaw, Superintendent of Schools.

Board of Education

In twenty-five years, Scarsdale High School has developed in many ways. With the increase of faculty and students has come a pleasant informality in the classroom and after school.

As the nucleus of our school activity, the Board of Education has multiplied its duties to meet the present needs of our educational system. Superintendent Archibald B. Shaw and Assistant Superintendent Ralph Dumas work in close conjunction with the School Board, headed by Mr. Helge Johnson. Elected for three years, the Board members contribute unselfishly to the improvement of our schools and ultimately to the welfare of the Scarsdale community.

Their responsibilities encompass making policies, providing a teaching and administrative staff, maintaining our building facilities, approving new courses and, this year, planning for the new junior high school.

DISTRICT ADMINISTRATORS

Seated—Mr. Archibald B. Shaw, Superintendent of Schools; Miss Beatrice L. Stolle, Secretary to the Superintendent. Standing—Mr. Ralph H. Dumas, Assistant Superintendent; Dr. E. Clayton Seeley, Assistant to the Superintendent.

The purchase of a printing press for industrial arts, maps for the Social Studies Department, and the question of a skating rink were items in the minutes of the 560-member P.T.A. in the early 1930's. Although the rink is still a dream, the printing press and the maps and many other items have become realities as a result of P.T.A. planning.

At present the P.T.A. is headed by an Executive Board led by Mrs. Richard Pomeroy. In addition to planning and organizing P.T.A. Scholarships, New Mothers' Teas, and the Children's Theatre Project, this year the P.T.A. innovated a series of four parent-teacher discussion meetings, "Our High School Curriculum—Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

PRINCIPAL
Oliver W. Melchior

Administration

Mr. Melchior, assisted by Mr. Khanlian, serves as administrator, coordinator, counselor, and friend of every student. His familiar appearances as leader of the assemblies are perhaps the least demanding of his many varied duties, both in public and behind the scenes. Administrative details are also handled by Mrs. Claycomb, executive secretary, and Mrs. Austin, secretary to the principal.

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE
Mr. John Khanlian, Assistant to Principal; Mrs. Anne Austin, Secretary to Principal;
Mrs. Louise A. Claycomb,
Executive Secretary; Mr.
Oliver W. Melchior, Principal.

SENIOR HIGH DEANS
Mr. George Pauff, Mr. Stefan E.
Corbin, Miss Eleanor Chamberlin, Miss Thelma Fitzgerald.

Deans

The individual student is the primary concern of the deans. Since over 90 per cent of the graduating class goes on to college, Miss Chamberlin and Mr. Pauff are often busy with eleventh and twelfth grades' college conferences. Miss Fitzgerald and Mr. Corbin were selected this year to work with the freshmen and sophomores, while Miss Smith and Mr.

Bender help prepare the courses for the seventh and eighth graders.

A seventh grader who is bewildered and confused, a freshman who begins to get initial college qualms, or a senior trying to decide upon a college all get equal attention. Time and effort are devoted by these six deans to help solve the problems of each student.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL ADMINISTRATION

Office Staff

As secretaries to the Deans and as office and attendance clerks, the Office Staff plays an integral part in the life of every student. From them pupils frequently receive messages concerning appointments and unwelcome cut-slips. The staff handles attendance; bulletins to teachers, parents, and students; and problems ranging from a seventh grader's locker troubles to a senior's lost car keys. Twenty-five years have brought many changes to the staff whose original location was the present library.

English

To teach all students what will be most beneficial to them in the future as well as in the present, the English Department, under Mr. Ayer, offers courses covering everything from the most elementary sentence-diagramming to more mature literary appreciation. Surrounded by an ever-increasing swarm of compositions and research papers, students become more aware of the major role played by English in the school curriculum.

The entire school was saddened at the untimely death of Mr. Ayer on April 1.

Citizenship Education

The Citizenship Education Department has continued its diversified program which covers the entire field of human history and includes specialized studies of local government and current problems. This department, under Mr. Mandeville, encourages students to further their understanding of the responsibilities of citizenship in a democracy.

Seated—Miss Dorothy B. Connor, Miss Carolyn H. Eaton, Mr. Edwin W. Mandeville, Head of the Department; Mrs. Elizabeth H. Steele, Mr. William M. Steele, Jr. Standing—Mr. Richard R. Holden, Head of the Department; Mr. Loren Shores, Mr. Richard R. Howard. Lost—Mr. Charles L. Reid, Jr.

Modern Languages and Latin

Mr. Holden, department head, and his co-workers have planned a year emphasizing the training of the individual student.

After taking at least two years of "español," "français," or "Deutsch," Scarsdale pupils would be expected to fend for themselves in a foreign country. Without going abroad, students can acquire a background of language customs through class-room study.

Latin will be Latin whether in the year 32 B.C. or 1957 A.D. Although the first conjugation of "amo" and the first seven lines of Vergil's "Aeneid" never change, teaching techniques do. The staff, under Mr. Beveridge's direction, has proved this by making an ancient language interesting in a modern world.

Science

Frogs, neutrons, and students occupy an important place in the modern new laboratories of the Science Department, headed by Mr. Newlin. During classes and after school, students gain scientific knowledge in the many, varied fields.

Third Row—Mr. Patrick Menna, Miss B. Ellen Isenberg, Miss Doris McLees. Fourth Row—Mr. Warren Goodie, Mrs. Marvel Reese, Mr. Frederick H. Wohlers, Miss Irene E. Kent. Lost—Mr. David H. Buchanan, Mr. LeRoy S. Stemer.

Physical Education and Health

"Do we have to change today?" are the only unpleasant words said in connection with the gym department. Once in uniform, even lazy students participate in class. Outside of class, the department, headed by Mr. Leonard, organizes intramural and interscholastic sports.

Other popular classes in this department which students also find worthwhile are Health and Driver Education. The Health Unit handles physical examinations, specialized check-ups such as eye and ear tests, and the interminable flow of first-aid patients.

Child Study

The Child Study Department's chief duty is to work for a more congenial relationship between pupils, teachers, and parents. Dr. Parker and Dr. Reigart administer various tests to groups and to individuals in Scarsdale schools and also work with students referred to them by the deans and principals.

CHILD STUDY

Dr. Agnes Reigart, Psychologist; Mrs. Hilda Daly, Secretary to Psychologists; Dr. Raymond Parker, Psychologist.

Arts and Crafts

In the modern atmosphere of the new art rooms, Mr. Beckerman, Mr. Dale, and Miss High provide students with valuable artistic instruction. In the manual arts sections, students learn about the mechanical phases of art under Mr. Theodores and Mr. Hanson who supervise the wood and metal shops.

ARTS AND CRAFTS

Seated—Miss Ini High, Mr. James Theodores.
Second Row—Mr. Kaare Dale, Mr. Luke F. Beckerman, Head of the Department; Mr. James R. Benedict.

Speech and Drama

Mr. Hemmerly and Mrs. Hill have modernized Demosthenes. Without pebbles in their mouths students learn elocution, character interpretation, and pantomime. The theatrical phase of the department features stagecraft and make-up.

SPEECH AND DRAMA

Mr. John Hemmerly, Head of Department; Mrs. Gloria Hill.

Library

Students wanting to locate references on topics ranging from astronomy to zoology count on the assistance of Miss LeNoir, Miss McLaury, and Miss Lewis. Each year under their direction the library is run efficiently, and new books are added to the shelves.

LIBRARY

Miss Jean McLaury, Miss Joyce Lewis, Miss Barbara LeNoir, Head Librarian. Lost—Mrs. Florence Pasternak, Secretary.

HOME ECONOMICS
Miss Anna M. Cunningham; Miss Ellen Magnuson,
Head of the Department; Miss Joanne Bruce.

Business Education

Fifteen typewriters were the proud possession of the Department of Business Education one-quarter of a century ago. Now the department has forty-two typewriters which are used by over 300 students. Courses in shorthand, bookkeeping, business arithmetic, and typing prepare students for college work and for the world of business.

BUSINESS EDUCATION
Dr. Marian Jo Collins, Mr.
John N. Jamison, Head of the Department.

Home Economics

Stir, mix, baste, and sew are the watchwords of Home Economics. With Miss Magnuson and Miss Bruce, girls learn the basic principles of sewing, first making skirts and blouses, then fashioning dresses and sports clothes. In the culinary "do-it-yourself" department, Miss Cunningham supervises classes for future homemakers and handy "short-order" cooks.

MUSIC
Mr. Walter C. Ehret, Mrs.
Gloria Hill, Mr. Harry A.

Head of the Department.

CAFETERIA STAFF

Music

The Music Department had its beginning in the gay '20's, under the leadership of the late George Hubbard. Vocal music was the mainstay of the department, as a chorus was the only school musical organization. Department head Mr. Briggs and Mr. Alshin, who rejoined the staff this year after an absence of 24 years, now conduct the band and orchestra respectively, which were formed in 1933 under the same two teachers. Along with Mr. Ehret, choral director, they have inspired the spirit and musical talent of their groups.

INDISPENSABLES

Mr. Maxwell Iram, Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds; Mr. Kurt Puff, Carpenter-Mechanic; Mr. Thomas Lyons, Head Custodian.

Indispensables

As our building has expanded over the past 25 years, the custodial staff has increased accordingly. Classrooms and vast stretches of corridors are kept in prime condition; lockers are repaired; and light bulbs, replaced. Outside, Mr. Lyons and his staff maintain the athletic fields and school grounds.

The Cafeteria staff is indispensable, for they prepare lunches and serve over a thousand people daily. Hot turkey dinner for Thanksgiving is one example of the many "extras" that Miss Yungen and her staff have offered students this year.

Who Came to See the Game?

Quick Somebody, What Happened?

After exciting and relaxing summers, 1704 vacationers trooped once again back to Scarsdale's bustling halls. Since some room numbers had been changed, the returning crowd sometimes found it difficult to direct newer classmates. Two of the prime topics of conversation were M. McCabe's snake bite and the enormous amount of homework. Of greatest interest to the class of '57 was R. Vitolo, our exchange student from Rome, Italy, who became S. Seberhagen's "sister" for the year. At the first assembly, Mr. Melchior explained the "new, quiet fire drills," and predicted the enrollment would go up to 1750 students. We were impressed by an assembly speech of former Honor Committee chairman, Marshall Braxton, who spoke on the necessity of an honor code. Seniors buckled down, struggling to "pass" their vocational-personality tests and trying to arrive on time for eighth period class meetings. September 26 was a cold day, and to make it seem colder we had three very confusing fire drills. The ringing was echoed in the Junior High, where students were buzzing over who would be their next G.O. officers. They elected R. Simon, R. Winslow, and C. Craft in an exciting election. In the Senior High, R. Craft organized his G.O., running things smoothly during the year. The Maroon staff, headed by M. Braxton, again turned out the prize-winning newspaper. Honors of all sorts came to S.H.S. students: G. Franklin's and C. Trager's windows in the annual Hallowe'en Window-Painting Contest "bewitched" the judges into giving them top honors; the DAR announced that our Good Citizen was L. Ogilvy. More excitement came after workday, when the Seniors learned they set a record in earning over seven hundred dollars—more than enough to finance Ros-sella's trip.

We enthusiastically cheered our football team, in its victories over Peekskill and Sleepy Hollow; suddenly our elation was checked when the end of the contract brought first period marking period tests. We soon perked up to enjoy a Teachers' Convention holiday and after that, the first Career Conference. With B. Vann's Senior Boosters Club, encouraged by M. Baldwin, J. Levy and their cheer-leading crew, our fall sports season was spirited. Bandy's plea for a school seal was answered by C. Feingold's winning design with originality and fine technique. Masses of K. Shearer's cookies were baked for the 39 Signifer inductees who had made the grade.

The Social Planning Board's efforts put us in a winning mood at the first dance, "The Winner's Whirl," which honored the fall athletes. The girls' Hockey Honor Squad ended their season in a competition with the soccer team at which they were shamed by the booters. Thanksgiving vacation was quickly upon us, and all too quickly gone.

We came back to have the Hastings High School Orchestra entertain us with their excellence and musical versatility. At the end of the week, we witnessed outstanding performances by J. Shaw, D. Rusk, W. Stott, S. Lander, and S. Schumer in "Our Town." The Seniors bit their nails, but tried to make an impression, during the college interviews with admission officers. December 10, we not only received our marks for the end of the second contract, but we also had the added subject of conversation of a new bell schedule featuring five-minute passing periods which gave us additional opportunities—to prepare for our next class. Teachers did not see as much of the juniors and seniors that week as they usually did, with the year's second Career Conference, December 12. The following day the senior high heard the three speeches on the Constitution by R. Mahoney, J. McCabe, and R. Youngs as their entries in the American Legion Oratorical Contest. R. Mahoney was selected to represent S.H.S. in the district contest.

The Music Department's gift to the community, the annual Christmas Concert, combined the talents of the choruses and the Senior Orchestra. Excellent solos were contributed by C. Hilton, S. Keene, and S. Samotus, J. Duval, and M. Gershefski on her cello. The Jubilettes, C. Werner's junior vocalists, sang a rollicking arrangement of "Sleigh Ride." Grace and creative technique were included in the program by M. Baldwin who danced to an old Christmas carol. From P. Citron, master of ceremonies at the second

Senior Breakfast, the seniors heard their favorite choices and interesting tidbits such as the fascinating facts about Pete's Uncle Presley! The annual Christmas assembly was divided into three parts: selections by the Senior Band; a dance, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," done by twelve girls from the Steffi Nossen School; and encores from the Christmas Concert done by the A Cappella Choir. It put us into the mood for our Christmas holidays which we were soon enjoying.

School re-opened the day after New Year's; a few people came back glowing from more southerly regions, but most returned looking rather wan from the preceding holiday's festivities. The Dramatic Club invited the students to try out for the winter production, "The Devil's Disciple," for which two casts were chosen. As the saying goes, the sheep were separated from the goats when College Boards came for the Seniors on January 12; Regents Examinations for the half-year courses followed almost immediately. To top off all these testing programs, the school added its own in the form of contract tests. Even non-skiers had fun in the "Snowflake Lodge" February 1, which preceded the Band Concert. "Ze Boss," L. Ogilvy, along with the rest of her staff breathed with relief as Bandy went to press. We enjoyed long weekends twice during February (Thanks to Lincoln and Washington). NROTC candidates who passed the exam in December were wished good luck by S.H.S. in passing the next screening, the physical exam. The third and final Career Conference, February 19, held the interest of the juniors and seniors.

March 1 and 2, the footlights again shone on the Dramatic Club members in Shaw's

"The Devil's Disciple," where B. Acheson, E. Talamas, S. Lander, P. Eisenberg, D. Rusk, W. Stott, and E. McDonald made double headlines. The seniors struggled again with College Boards but were soothed the next day at the Senior Orchestra Concert. Homework began to claim the juniors' attention after the election festivities which climaxed the hectic campaigning. At this point, seniors just watched as the Class of '58 began to edge in. The Ides of March were soon over and that seemingly unending time between Christmas and Easter vacations came and went. Sending us off for Easter vacation were the never-tiring cheerleaders who were honoring Scarsdale's athletes in the winter sports award assembly.

After the vacation we settled down to the final two months of school. We danced "Round and Round" out of the fifth marking period, and the following Friday we were on hand to hear the musical talents of the combined choruses and the orchestra. The juniors got their first taste of College Boards May 18, then vowed to take their vocabulary lists out of winter storage.

Class Day came with all its fun: the breakfast, the signing of our new Bandys, Mr. Painter's surprise, and the Class Day Show where seniors rivaled Dickens in their version of the "Tale of Two Cities." After the juniors' tea dance, preparations began in earnest for exams, although we took time out to applaud the Senior Band at the "Pops Concert." Everything happened at once: Regents and Finals were taken; and June 21 the Class of '57 made its formal farewell after its all-too-swift senior year

CLASS SONG OF '57

(To the tune of "There's No Business Like Show Business")

Verse

The teachers, the coaches, the deans and the clerks,
Have something on their minds extremely sad.
The teachers, the coaches, the deans and the clerks,
Are losing seniors—that itself is bad.
But this year's seniors are the very best,
We stand out head and shoulders o'er the rest.

Chorus

There's no seniors like us seniors,
Like no seniors we know.
From our morning breakfasts to our outings,
We were very gay and had a ball.
Through our dances, football games, and source themes,
Our spirits soaring, we gave our all.
There's no seniors like us seniors,
Like no seniors we know.
Mrs. Schumann, Mr. Steele, we'll miss you so,
When this year ends, we will hate to go.
57's memories will grow and grow,
So long, Scarsdale, so long.

Verse

Not Princeton, not Harvard, not Radcliffe, not Yale,
Nor colleges to which we'll all apply.
Not Princeton, not Harvard, not Radcliffe, not Yale,
Will ever take the place of Scarsdale High.
We still will have the quizzes and the tests,
But what the heck, we're better than the rest.

After the Boards Were Over . . .

'Specially

Mr. Melchior asked the new Senior Class, feeling strangely conspicuous, but pleasantly important, to rise to the underclassmen's applause at the opening assembly—our first recognition! Soon, Habib's news about the first class outing at Bear Mountain excited us. Although September 22 dawned as a cold and gloomy day, our spirits warmed to co-ed games of baseball, soccer, and football. Very hungry after such unaccustomed early morning activity, we sat down to picnic lunches, without the din of the cafeteria. After lunch, the senior safari reluctantly headed towards Scarsdale. A week later, at the Peekskill football game, Seniors sat in reserved space, the center section, valiantly saved by Bobby's Senior Boosters.

September 20 was Workday! Margo and Pete supervised the project for the A.F.S., including the enjoyably wet car wash, the cake sale, and odd jobs of all descriptions. Celebrating that night at Sherry's, we learned that the $736.98 had exceeded our goal. "Kicking off for '57" was the theme of our first Senior Breakfast, planned by Anne. We set our alarm clocks ahead and arrived still sleepy, but in time to hear emcee Bob announce our class song and class entertainers, as well as singer Dave Smith and distinguished "educators" Withers and Reid.

Seniors

The Fall Sports assembly marked the beginning of another senior privilege — sitting in unassigned seats. Shortly after, we elected Class Favorites which were announced at the second Senior Breakfast in December, by emcee Pete, with the aid of Santa Stemer. That morning we also enjoyed the songs of Sally, John, Maura and Bessie, which aptly carried out Helaine's breakfast theme, "Winter Wonderland."

After Christmas, many of us settled down to the most well-known Senior Privilege (?) — writing our source themes. Our few first-semester authorities could speak with the voice of experience. Winter gatherings were enjoyed on various occasions beginning with Hugh's "not to be announced" post-College Boards party. Relieving the January and February doldrums, the news of an extra Senior Breakfast stirred the air.

With the arrival of spring, we munched and lunched outside, while we talked about plans for OUR day. When May 24 finally arrived, and we were really "Specially Seniors." After breakfast together, we got our first peek at Bandy, before rushing off to last-minute rehearsals for the big show. The spirit of Class Day was extended into the evening by the Junior Class who welcomed us as guests of honor at the Tea Dance. Then came hectic exams, '57's graduation, the Senior Prom — we're alumni!

Junior Class

From the first kickoff of the football season to the day when we proudly watched the Class of '57 give us the school pennant, we had a busy year.

At school's reopening we quickly exchanged vacation tales and renewed old acquaintances. Then, just as we had settled down for "the grind," came football, and we followed classmates T. Freyberg, S. Gager, J. Lucas, S. Heater, W. O'Brien, O. Arnheim, R. Donner, R. Mehofer, and D. Lang across Westchester to see them play. Meanwhile J. Kent, T. Melchior, D. Neary, T. O'Connor, W. Richardson, J. Wallberg, and A. Weinberg "socced" ambitiously. M. Brean, M. Edwards, S. Heitmann, A. Ripley, and S. Wallach on the muddy hockey field, and S. Dexter, S. Elting, J. Finkelstein, M. Meglathery, E. Reese, and S. White in Speedball dispelled all rumors that the opposite sex was weaker.

With their names in lights, D. Rusk, W. Stott, J. Shaw, S. Leech, M. Meglathery, E. McDonald, M. Rapaport, J. Austin, and J. McCabe starred in the Dramatic Club's fall presentation of "Our Town." Throughout the year "Marooners" F. Gardner, S. Kimball, R. Kostelanetz, and D. Rusk kept us informed on the school news, while S. Buck, F. Gardner, and J. Frank lent their literary talents to Jabby. Then basketball assumed the spotlight. Sharing top billing with the team were D. Lyttle, M. Morrison, R. Dowling, V. Griffin, and M. Chenault, who led our cheering. Matching cheers with baskets were R. Donner, P. Shaefter, D. Lang, D. Wittner, and G. Giese.

Then with a rush arrived those breathless moments which ended our junior year—that hectic Election Week, the end of another baseball season, the furious cramming for the Regents, Class Day, and — we're Seniors!

Sophomore Class

The year of '56 brought many new and wonderful events to the Class of '59. Upon entering Senior High, we found ourselves increasingly active in a multitude of organizations.

Athletically speaking, S. Harrington, M. Smoley and V. Farnham led us as we rooted for J. Steenson and W. Wright on the football field; while on the other side of the school, we cheered for Varsity member M. Cannold and our undefeated J.V. soccer team, co-captained by K. Davidson and L. Grossman. G. DeLazzero and J. Snyder represented us in Cross Country.

Upholding the female honor, hockey squad players J. Cannon, M. Von Turk, N. Werner, C. Borg, M. Bridley, and H. Moed, "dribbled" around South Field, while R. Berger, C. Skinner, D. Dunning, and V. Brennan displayed their talents in speedball. G.A.A. representatives S. Wilbert, J. Cannon, and L.

Price helped to plan our "play days" and organize intramural sports. Socialites were entertained at dances planned by M. McGrath, L. Price, J. Burcham, and by members of "The Four Tunes," V. Farnham, D. Smith, C. Skinner, and G. Meyers. We all enjoyed participating in the A Cappella and Chorus recitals. When the basketball season arrived, we squeezed into the gyms to cheer M. Lynch, F. Beauchamp, P. Page, A. Schaffer, D. Rosenberg, P. Breines, F. Spuhler, and J. Sturm scoring points for the J.V. On the girls' courts, J. Cannon, J. Flanagan, L. Maier, H. Moed, M. Von Turk, and S. Wilbert shot and blocked baskets for the honor squad.

As Spring approached, we were confronted with dissecting, driving, and bad dreams about Regents. Then suddenly our sophomore year, with all its memories was over, but our dreams of Junior year in Scarsdale High were just beginning.

Freshman Class

It is said that good things come in threes, and the third year of our Junior High career was no exception. Experienced in school ways and knowing our teachers and classmates better, we plunged into our final year of Junior High. Aware that this year our marks counted towards college, we made adamant resolutions to do our very best scholastically. Those who stood by their resolutions were rewarded by being inducted into Aristoi of which A. Shapiro, F. Rumsey, and J. Falk served as officers.

The victors of the year's most important campaign — the Junior G.O. election — were R. Simon, D. Winslow, and C. Craft. Also in the limelight were D. Frankel, M. Gruss, T. Sachs, and L. Madison as stars of "My Sister Eileen." Athletic laurels went to J. Darrow, J. O'Connor, A. Shapiro, P. Aronsky, R. Greenlee, B. Smith, M. Steinberg, D. Cohen, M. Elkin, excelling in football, basketball and baseball. Honors also went to P. Willis, A. Zook, S. Wilson, S. Hackett, F. Rumsey, and E. Krosney for girls' sports. The personalities and events of our class were put into print each month by S. Lynton, J. Wallach, E. Krosney, C. Craft, editors of Scrivener.

Having enjoyed our last year in the Junior High, all 375 of us look forward to taking our place in the Senior High School next year.

Eighth Grade

"Here we come, 61" was the cry of many eighth graders this fall as we confidently re-entered the familiar halls of Scarsdale High. The first months of '56 found our interests diversified in such activities as musical groups, after-school sports, Social Planning Board, Science Club and Dramatic Club.

Some of our unlimited energy was expended on the soccer field as P. Freydborg, J. Gary, R. Greer, S. Solomon, N. Baron, P. Moskovitz, P. Rothschild, R. Macdonald, M. Lane, W. Borden, E. Shapiro, D. Perin, and J. Cunningham dribbled down the field to victory. Football heroes were A. Reilly, R. Duggan, W. Benenson, D. Bullard, J. McKay, T. Chamberlin, H. Gaillard, L. Laybourne, W. Miller, D. Brady, K. Kauffman, D. Bandler, R. Leeds, and J. Canepa. Not to be outdone, the girls glorified themselves by becoming Hockey All-Stars. The members of the Social Planning Board did a superb job planning our fun-packed parties. Science Club members enjoyed peering into the mysteries of the fantastic world of science, while the Dramatic Club under the leadership of L. Kostelanetz and M. Beckerman entertained.

A new slant on history was provided by Mr. Gray who took his three classes on a trip to Philipse Castle and West Point. A high point in the English Department calendar was Mr. Cone's trip with one of his classes to see the musical, "My Fair Lady." With regret, we say good-bye to many of our teachers who will be going to the new Junior High School next year, but we'll appreciate the spacious halls and rooms of Scarsdale High in which we, as ninth graders, will become the real freshmen of the building.

Top dog one day, little fish the next—it happened to us so suddenly. In June we felt as though we were sitting on top of the world. Then came September, and we were lost in the labyrinth of S.H.S.

Our first major problem was managing to operate the ingenuous mechanical devices of our lockers. Other predicaments arose, but they soon disappeared and we had time to look at life's pleasanter side.

The Seventh Grade Dramatic Club offered opportunities for the class actors. Others of us contributed to Science Club meetings with our reports and experiments. The more service-minded students learned to run a movie projector. The Rifle Club and Scrivener were two other school activities in which we participated.

Our class has a history that will repeat itself, for we'll be the little fish again as freshmen in '58.

Reverberating with the sound of R. Craft's gavel and laughter caused by representatives' "bloopers," G.O. meetings often lasted long after 3:00. Minutes were read by M. McCabe of the versatile voice, and while R. Cohen contributed independent ideas, F. Howard startled the school with his original orthography.

Although the G.O. started the year in a humorous vein by giving R. Vitolo a shaky but uproarious view of S.H.S., it settled down to a year full of accomplishments. The Executive Committee was replaced by the Advisory Committee which included representatives from all senior

BANDERSNATCH EDITORS

L. Ogilvy, Editor-in-Chief; Miss Blanchard, Adviser; K. Shearer, Managing Editor; M. McCabe, Associate Editor; D. Bowman, Business Manager; M. Baldwin, Associate Editor.

One score and five years ago, thirteen students produced an 84 page, paper-bound yearbook for seniors only. Although Horatio McGuinty, not Bandersnatch, was featured, this marked the birth of S.H.S.'s yearbook, since previously the annual had been a part of Jabby. In '57, with Miss Blanchard's help, L. Ogilvy, M. Baldwin, M. McCabe, and K. Shearer led the staff in making big decisions and planning innovations. Little Red Hood was saved from the wolf, the Seal Contest judged, and the dedicatee kept secret until May. In spite of source themes and College Boards, Bandy went to press for the 25th time in January, and the dust settled again on the Bandy files.

In S.H.S. Everybody Reads

The "new look" was very much in evidence in this year's Maroon. M. Braxton, editor-in-chief, P. Eisenberg, managing editor, and Mr. Painter, adviser, kept ahead of the news by synchronizing the staff's operation.

Those invited to the Wednesday afternoon "sessions" included editors from each field. News editors, S. Kimball, R. Kostelanetz, and D. Rusk with the help of 70 reporters—Maroon's own dragnet—scouted for news. C. deSylva, assisted by F. Gardner, and J. Miller modernized the feature and sports pages by adding two new columns.

Production and copy editors, G. DeWolf and R. Feinberg, were seen checking and re-checking last minute copy, while business manager G. Wilson was balancing the books. On-the-spot pictorial coverage was rushed in by J. Goell. Through the efforts of R. Burt, circulation manager, eight hundred students read Maroon in those anticipated Wednesday homeroom periods.

Bandy's Ancestor

Although Jabberwock is the school's oldest publication, it is composed of students' newest and most original ideas. The watchful staff, headed by C. de Sylva, chose both amusing and serious writing for their three issues of Jabby which included a new Boner Section and a special teen-age issue.

Meet the Press

Those who have experienced a feeling of pride and importance because of seeing their names in the local papers should realize that this is the work of M. McCabe and her Pressboard staff advised by Miss Blanchard. Although these reporters often had to become amateur sleuths in order to track down elusive teachers, they never failed to meet their weekly deadline and keep local citizens abreast of our important school events.

PRESSBOARD

Seated—M. Barry, Miss Blanchard, Adviser; M. McCabe, Editor-in-Chief; L. Ogilvy, S. Samotus. Standing—L. Hermanson, M. Reedy, V. Brennan, M. Bridley, G. Koch, M. West, D. Lepow, E. Samek, G. Minerva's Mob

Virtuosos in their own right, the Signifer members, eating lunch in the orchestra pit, use their ingenuity for more than class work. With G. Wilson, P. Eisenberg, and M. Baldwin as officers, and Mr. Pauff as adviser, Signifer initiated a tutoring service, in addition to supplying the office with student aides. Three Career Conferences chairmanned by V. Carson, were organized for juniors and seniors. Starting with only two members 25 years ago, this organization now boasts of over 60 honor students.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Seated—B. Meyer, R. Rosenthal, C. Kinsey, R. Brause, C. Lyons, President; S. Pomeroy, Vice-President; D. Drier, M. Harris. Standing—N. Newman, S. Lander, E. Sandler, L. Alpern, Mr. Richardson, Adviser; C. Thomas, R. Miller, A. Phillips, J. Malina, J. Loste.

Profs for Posterity

Scarsdale's teachers of tomorrow took a peek into a future profession when, as a part of their program, they visited classes in Fox Meadow. Advised by Mr. Richardson and Miss Dodge, the new Future Teachers of America Club has firmly established itself in the extra-curricular program.

Student Life-Line

Through the school store, maintained under Mr. Jamison's professional guidance, S.H.S. students always have a chance to buy a forgotten protractor for physics or a compass and ruler for geometry. K. Rosenberg and the other staff members provided their many customers with stationery supplies before school and during lunch shifts.

Readers' Guides

In return for the service they give, those on the Library Staff gain a widespread knowledge of the library and its techniques. After a half-year's training under Miss McLaury, staff members are capable of assuming many of the librarians' clerical duties and responsibilities. This year the group is represented on the Westchester Library Staff by L. Longley, who has served as president of this county organization.

Fiddlers Five

Singing Strings

The Senior Orchestra originally consisted of 19 musicians—all boys. Now, however, the boy-girl ratio of the present 53-member enrollment is more evenly balanced. Under Mr. Alshin's direction, orchestra members joined the choruses to present the annual Christmas Program. Then a busy schedule of rehearsals began for the Spring Concert in March. This was followed by an equally successful presentation later in the semester and their final bow of the year at graduation. Officers were R. Sholz, G. Citron and B. Kittay.

Bach to Beethoven

With selections from Sousa to Anderson the Senior Band, under the baton of Mr. Briggs, entertained at concerts, assemblies, and football games on the field. R. Dubin created routines for the twirlers who stole the half-time show with their red skirts and white boots. At Syracuse, President R. Sholz, with M. Marx, S. Dexter, and M. Oppenheim, took part in the All-State Festival. The Band is a far cry from the all-male group of years ago, uniformed in maroon sweaters and white ducks and accompanied by a dachshund mascot.

Melody Makers

The Senior Choruses and the A Cappella Choir have a distinguished history. Their fore-runners of the '30's presented a Spring Concert in Latin and scored their first local success by singing over a White Plains radio station. Appearing at the 1939 World's Fair, they gained national recognition.

This year, with the continuing demand for encores, the choruses enjoyed the popularity befitting their talents. Harmony and group spirit, developed by Mr. Ehret, were obvious to the "full house" at the Christmas Concert. Another winter season specialty was the choice of R. Kostelanetz, C. Werner, and P. Reiter to represent our choruses at the Syracuse All-State Festival.

The Spring Concert, planned by officers L. Behrens, M. DeLazzero, G. Kowenhoven, and S. Schirotta, again brought fame to the musical groups. At this concert, musical scores donated by J. Barthelson and Dr. Harry Wilson were featured.

Dear Arlene,
 This has been a great year!
 I'll think I have a lot to be proud of. I hope you will read together, right?
 I hope you decided to go to the summer
 camp!

The Roving Eye

The Camera Club has more interesting subjects to watch than "birdies." A. Kalker, president, gave a demonstrated lecture on portrait photography which highlighted the fall season. Members also studied techniques of color work. Spring season brought a field trip, directed by Mr. Shores, and inter-club and national competitions.

"On the Contrary . . ."

Emotions burst loudly as Forum battled before the presidential election. Insults and "point of order" denoted deep partisan feelings as student Republicans and Democrats debated the crucial issues. Discussion on the other topics concerning the domestic and foreign scenes attracted a record membership of over 60 students. Mixed in with the politics were talks on the culture and customs of foreign lands. R. Vitolo explained the ramifications of being an Italian signorina, and local "world travelers" detailed their adventures in Greece, Sweden, Britain, Mexico, and Switzerland. Led by Miss Connor, faculty adviser, Forum took its midwinter trip to the U.N. to view today's most important political and social organization.

Thunderbolts

Twenty-five years ago it was known as the "Home of the Thunderbolts," but today it's the Senior Science Club. Reorganized in 1953, the club, directed by Mr. Zinn and executives J. Harrison, G. Wilson, and J. Harte, presented programs which included films, field trips and lectures.

Seat Spotters

A smiling face and a helping hand are the trademarks of the Ushers Club members who serve at school as well as at community productions. An innovation this year was the limiting of membership to the juniors and seniors because of the overwhelming number of applicants. Reviving the lost custom of electing officers, members chose S. Keene, president; F. Gardner, vice-president; and G. Koch, secretary, as the Executive Committee to work with Mr. Khanlian, adviser.

Knights of the Chess Board

The Chess Club, coached by Mr. Pratt, participated with outstanding results in a league of ten Westchester County high schools. Team members, S. Frauenthal, J. Harrison, J. Harte, and C. Lawrence compiled a record matched only by the 1939 chessmen.

Foreign Infiltration

Renowned for its longevity, good food, and Madame Defarges, Le Cercle Français has retained its popularity for 25 years. This year's attractions were a discussion of America in French by R. Vitolo, president; the annual Christmas party, and a play en français.

South American rhythms roused all present at Spanish Club meetings. Club members, directed by J. Rowe, improved their accents by listening to U.N. debates in Spanish and published a newspaper distributed to all Spanish classes.

The Latin Club was reorganized in January by Miss Koegel, whose slides of her visit abroad as a Ford Fellow were shown. Members learned the Greek alphabet; and D. Rusk, president, supervised the publication of the "Nuntius," a Latin newspaper.

Plenty of Drive

The Great Promoters

The Advertising Club set high goals and succeeded in fulfilling them, by supplying Bandy and Maroon with their quotas of ads. The Bulletin Board Committee, making sure that our halls were gaily and seasonably decorated, busied itself with turkeys, Santas, and Easter Eggs. "Pogo's going! Are you?" is a slogan which identifies a third organization, the Printing Club, which, besides publicizing school events, printed sports schedules.

Points of Information

After a vigorous campaign in which R. Simon, R. Winslow, and C. Craft emerged victorious, Junior G.O. President Roger chose committee chairmen. In their weekly meetings the council efficiently handled all business. Among other accomplishments they planned and established a ninth-grade honor system, installed new baskets in the gyms, investigated the possibility of a shop club, and promoted the ninth grade All-Star teams. Mr. Forbes introduced these neophyte-statesmen to the methods of parliamentary procedure and advised them during their debates.

Cerebrum Society

Aristoi, Scarsdale's branch of the Junior National Honor Society has brain power and leadership to spare. Highpoints of the year were the induction teas for new members at the end of the third and fifth marking periods. Prexy A. Shapiro led the group in planning a clerical and student-guide service. Passing approval on the society's constitution and eligibility rules was another major project. Since the eighth grade is moving to its new home next year, this was the club's last year with joint eighth and ninth grade membership.

Briggs' Brass

A wandering student in the music tower Tuesday or Thursday eighth period, might be surprised by the melodious strains emanating from room 355 as the maestros of the Junior Band rehearse.

Several times throughout the year its more outstanding musicians are rewarded by winning membership in the Senior Band. All are rewarded in the Memorial Day parade.

Sharp Notes

Mr. Alshin worked with the members of the Junior Orchestra, giving them notes on finer points of instrumental harmony. The juniors, rehearsing for many hours in the tower, learned that it takes time as well as talent to develop musical skills. This orchestra had an enrollment of 45, many of whom, having proved exceptional musical ability, moved on during the year to the senior section.

Football

Whether played on Butler Field as it was 25 years ago, or North Field, as today, football has always been Scarsdale's number-one fall sport. Both students and faculty have lent their enthusiastic support to the squad.

Our Varsity Football Team started the year with high spirits and high scoring. The '56 Raiders launched their season with two impressive wins over Peekskill and Sleepy Hollow. These victories were followed by a tie with Ossining.

Deception was the keynote, as Coach Buchanan employed both the single wing and T-formations. W. Rodgers hurled passes from the T, while R. Donner passed from the single wing. F. Howard and W. Bishop were the chief receivers. R. Craft, R. Marshall and T. Freyberg provided running power; standouts in the line were R. Jackson, W. O'Brien and All-County Guard E. Davis.

The squad, because of fumbles and injuries which temporarily weakened the starting lineup, lost the remaining four games of their seven-game schedule.

Although the Ninth Grade All-Stars ended their season with an 0-4 record, the team improved as the season progressed with games against Rye, Mamaroneck, Pelham and Riverdale.

Cross Country

The 1956 Cross Country Team, captained by R. Ringler, compiled a 3-4 record. Two of the losses were dealt by top county teams, and the third was avenged in a rematch. The Harriers had a fuller schedule than previously and ran on a new course which provides better spectator-viewing. Ringler, who set a S.H.S. record for the two-and-a-half mile course, was the recipient of the traditional hat, presented at the fall sports assembly by Mr. Wohlers. Among Scarsdale's outstanding runners were J. Gollin, J. Miller, P. Kranz, and G. DeLazzero.

Varsity Club

The boys under the Red Raiders jackets are members of the recently revived Varsity Club. Composed of Varsity lettermen who have performed services to the school by participating on a varsity team, the club is organized to promote athletics, give recognition to the teams, and work as a school service organization.

Officers R. Marshall, H. Ladjevardi, W. Bishop, and E. Davis included in their program this year alumni get-togethers. During Christmas vacation the Varsity challenged some of Scarsdale's graduates to a basketball game.

Soccer

Although only in its third year at S.H.S., soccer has become the largest participation sport, with 110 boys playing in grades 7 through 12. This year's All-County men, H. Ladjevardi, J. Schutzman, and P. Mihayl led the Varsity Squad, which was composed chiefly of inexperienced boys.

Under the guidance of the new coach, Mr.

Rathke, the Varsity posted a fine 5-2-1 record, while the J.V. went through the season undefeated. Ossining, Bronxville, Sleepy Hollow and Riverdale were crushed by the booters. Only undefeated P.M.A. and Bellows proved stronger than Scarsdale. Junior J. Wallberg led in the scoring department with 5 goals; E. Day followed with 3.

Cheerleaders

Long pants worn by the masculine members of the squad 25 years ago and the more recent wool pleated skirts have been revolutionized by M. Baldwin's Cheerleading Squad supervised by Miss Kay. The appearance of swirling maroon jumpers at the Sleepy Hollow basketball game marked the beginning of a new tradition. To match the snappy uniforms, the girls developed new cheers, but didn't let us forget the old ones.

The '57 Red Raiders, coached by newcomer Warren Goodie, were victorious with a 13-3 season. The Hoopsters posted more wins than any previous Scarsdale team. Supplementing this outstanding record was the one achieved by forward S. Smith who set a new scoring record by a 19-point-per-game average.

Co-Captains W. Bishop and W. Rodgers led the senior starting five which was noted for the impressive back court play of D. Bowman and rebounding ability of center R. Marshall. Juniors G. Giese and D. Lang rounded out the starting team. R. Donner, P. Kranz, R. Rhodes, J. Rivchin, P. Schaffer and D. Whittner provided the Varsity's valuable reserve strength. The undefeated J.V., under Coach Spence, set its own record in a 16-game season.

G.A.A.

The S.H.S. girls' Olympic team, the G.A.A. Council, was a successful competitor for top honors in our sports world. Gold medals went to A. Perrine, president, and Miss Isenberg, adviser, who saw to it that refreshments were served for visiting teams, and rules set up for the intramural sports program. The G.A.A. rounded out the year's work with a first-prize Olympic sports fashion show.

Leaders Club

Some students forget to set their alarm clocks, but girls in the Leaders Club managed to arise at the crack of dawn on Tuesday mornings. Sleepy-eyed leaders at 7:50 A.M. were refreshed in rules and officiating techniques by Miss McLees, adviser, and M. Barry, president. As the gym teachers' "right-hand ladies," leaders assisted in classes and intramural sports—caring for equipment, checking attendance, and refereeing.

Wrestling Team

More wins, higher scores, and more points per match than any previous season were the outstanding achievements of the '57 matmen. Victories over P.M.A. and Riverdale, and a 53-point win over Katonah insured the success of the team which closed with a record of 7-1. Individual scoring records were broken by Captain Ladjevardi's 31 points in eight matches.

Strongest strugglers for Scarsdale were C. Taylor in the 106-pound class; H. Ladjevardi, 123; M. Graham, 130; J. Collins, 135; R. Ackerman, 165; W. O'Brien and J. Emery, unlimited.

Rifle Team

Averaging more than 491 points out of a possible 500, the Senior Rifle Team downed all of its league opponents in a twelve-match season. Among the outstanding triumphs were victories over Portchester, A. B. Davis, New Rochelle, Mamaroneck and Roosevelt. The Squad averaged 499 in the last match of its undefeated season.

The marksmanship of Co-Captains S. Gunn and J. Phillips was backed by fine shooting from R. Cochran, L. Duggan, T. Freyberg, G. Moffat, A. Oettinger and J. Robertson, all of whom won both individual and team honors.

Dear Arlene,
Well, here I am, stupid old me the date is August 25. I have had your writing in my book. It's Bandy all summer, and here I am sitting by the window finally writing in your book. It's for me to remember our long talks on the telephone. Do I always remember you? I bet you can't forget. Do you remember the time when we went out with the boys from camp. I have also remember your affair, eve. I bet you can't forget that we are Universe. What a time. I can't wait until you get home from camp. I have a lot going to be senior next year. It's going to be wonderful. I can't believe that in another year we will be in college. Gee, were we getting old.

I can't wait until you get home from camp. I have wrote in your bandy. I can't wait until you get home from camp. I have of friendship. I guess I could take years writing about the the dates and fun I have had with you, and I know it will continue in the future. But, of course, you would like your Bandy, and not want for years and years to get it back from me.
to dwell sign off with this little quote.

With Best Wishes

Scarsdale has been a six-year high school throughout its forty-year life. During this time, its program has expanded to fit the needs of its constantly increasing student body both in its curriculum and in its activities. Our school now participates in the Advanced Placement Program and offers honors courses to qualified students. In sports, golf and archery have taken their places among the more conventional activities.

With the increased enrollment, the former close contact between the junior and senior high grades as well as other advantages of the six-year school have been hampered. The separation of this program will encourage a continuation of those standards which have earned the school its place in education.

Moreover, Scarsdale's fine tradition will not be altered by this division. The staff, under the direction of Walter Fogg, will continue to instill the same ideals in the junior high students. Thus, although expansion has given us high standards and a fine reputation, separation will keep them for us.

Track

Garnering most of the Track Team's points were the sprinters, hurdlers, and runners, led by Marshall, Bishop, Ringler, Gladieux and Howard and backed by Gollin, Dennis, Kranz, and Miller. In field events, Graham, Reker, Marshall, and Lowe were the squad's chief point-earners. Bishop and Howard dashed to record-breaking runs of 22.5 and 428.6 in the 220 and mile, respectively.

Archery

Even with only two practice sessions, the first Archery team placed thirteenth and the second team, twenty-second in the National Archery Association Tournament. Captain of the Archery Honor Squad and high markswoman Sandy Seberhagen shot seventy hits out of seventy-two arrows, and capped another honor in receiving a pin as the highest Scarsdale scorer.

Golf

Scarsdale's linksmen tied three matches this year, an extremely unusual feat for a golf team. Under the coaching of Warren Goodie, the team of Headley, Kent, Gardner, Homewood, Giese, Youngs, and Fox, posted a record of two wins, three ties, and two losses.

Since only one member was a senior, the outlook for next season is particularly bright.

VARSITY TENNIS TEAM

Boys' Tennis

Triumphant in all thirteen dual matches, the Tennis Team extended its winning streak to twenty-four. The squad gained its first victory over Horace Mann and marred Stepinac's perfect record. John Schwarz and Dorian Bowman, State Doubles titlists, Ron Pickett, State Singles runner-up, and their teammates worked spiritedly to make Mr. Flaccus' last year as coach one to remember.

Softball

Coached by Miss Doris McLees and managed by Susan Pomeroy, the Softball Honor Squad saw some close and exciting moments. The spectacular playing of shortstop Mindy and centerfielder Anne boosted the team's spirit as did the unexpected arrival of football-clad seniors Dorrit, Donna, and Ginny at the White Plains game.

Girls' Tennis

Coached by Miss Diana Kay, this year's Tennis Team had the weather in its favor for all three matches. Seniors Merwin Braxton, Linda Ogilvy, and Leslie Foreman shone in singles while the doubles teams, Wallach-White, Cannon-McClintock and Samek-Trager, also did their best for S.H.S., winning over Bronxville even though they lost to Rosemary Hall and Fieldston.

Baseball

Paulin's no-hitter against Bronxville, Smith's almost perfect pitching against White Plains, and the homerun Gluck blasted in the Edgemont game were unforgettable moments to the Baseball Team. The Raider nine, aided by six veterans, compiled an 8-5 record with the pitchers strongly supported by outfielders Donner, Schaffer, and Davis, and infielders Rodgers, Neary, Gluck, and Melchior as well as by catcher Day.

Spring

Me and My Bandy
T. Van Schaick

The spring of '57 marked a peculiar loss to Scarsdale, for at the end of June not only the Class of '57 but also the seventh grade left for new locations. The alma mater was bereft of both her oldest and her youngest children.

The coming double departure had no noticeable effect on the enthusiasm with which all turned out for the Dramatic Club's spring production, The Devil's Disciple, having subsisted on satanic fare in the cafeteria for the preceding week. Nor was the spirit of revelry dimmed at the Roaring Twenties dance, for weary G.O. campaigners put aside their battle fatigue and wholeheartedly cheered president-elect Jim Kent.

Spring was a looking-ahead time, both for Seniors with college-acceptance notifications fluttering in their hands, and for Juniors as they united under class officers Bill Leland, Craig Lyons, Val Griffin, and Bill Stott.

Bandy, What a Big Mouth You Have!

Calendar

Scarsdale High had much to be proud of in the spring of '57—Susan Dexter's appointment as an American Field Service representative; Art Paulin's no-hitter against Bronxville; Dan Neary's spectacular batting average; and the credit done to the school by all the athletic teams. The high All-State ratings and the fine concerts of the A Cappella, Band, and Orchestra reflected the hard work and spirit of their members and the number of students honored with scholastic awards amazed all.

The days grew more hectic as graduation approached, and students struggled to fit in a few hours of study between such gala events as Mr. Pratt's party, the Round and Round dance, the first production of the Scarsdale Players, and the last eighth grade party. There was a momentary halt for College Boards, and then on to the Senior mutilations of Dickens' prose, and the Junior-planned Fantasyland dance on Class Day, a flurry of Regents, and almost simultaneously, Spring and school for 1957 were over.

Class

A year of Senior privileges and responsibilities culminated when Scarsdale High told us on May 24, "Today is your day." Many of us had worked hard preparing for it, but from 8 A.M. when the final Senior Breakfast started until 7 P.M. when the Tea Dance ended, the responsibilities were forgotten and the privileges were thoroughly enjoyed.

As we donned our Senior mortarboards before sitting down at the flower-strewn breakfast tables, we noticed the presence of the Class of '58 officers and advisers, which called to mind the wonderful jobs done by Habib Ladjevardi and Co. under the guidance of Mr. Steele and Mrs. Schumann. Entertainment followed, presided over by M.C. Peter Citron, giving the faculty a chance to display hidden abilities and a thorough knowledge of the student psyche. We also received a farewell sample of Senior talent.

We were again reminded that Seniors are special when we were allowed to claim our Bandy's fully three days before the underclassmen. Most of Flushed with theatrical triumph and splattered catsup we proceeded to the Junior-planned Tea Dance, given in our honor. As we wandered through Fantasyland, basking in Senior glory, we realized that another long-anticipated part of our Senior year had been reached and passed.

Graduation

As we seniors solemnly filed in to the "March of the Peers," we found it hard to realize that this graduation evening marked the fulfillment of our years in Scarsdale. Following the processional, the Reverend J. C. Herrin gave the invocation.

Gary Kowenhoven performed his last duty as vice-president by delivering the word of welcome and was followed by George Citron playing a piano solo, "Doctor Gradus ad Parnassum," by Debussy. Then Habib Ladjevardi, president, said farewell to Scarsdale for the class of 1957. Accompanied by George Citron, Bob Sholz next provided a pleasant interlude with his clarinet solo, "Concertino, Opus 26," by von Weber.

The graduation address by Mrs. Ruth Nash Chalmers, editor of "The Scarsdale Inquirer," told of the growth of the community, sharpened our appreciation of that part of our education just completed and helped us to think ahead to our approaching college years.

Then, suddenly, the moment we had eagerly awaited was here. How erect and proud each senior looked as he accepted his diploma from Dr. Archibald B. Shaw, superintendent of schools. Principal Oliver W. Melchior announced that Carlotta deSylva and Joseph Harrison were first and second ranking members of the senior class. Amid applause, congratulations and a few tears we sat down, and graduation had become a memory. The strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" gave dignity to our recessional, but there were smiles of triumph as we left the auditorium for the last time as a senior class.

Our trip to "Heaven," via the Senior Prom provided gaiety—and tired feet, which we promptly forgot at the breakfast given by Tad Day. Then to climax our commencement, we went out with a splash to Jones Beach.
